Remembrance Events cancelled due to COVID

The annual national remembrance events scheduled to take place in Edinburgh on Remembrance Sunday (8 Nov) & Armistice Day (11 Nov) will not be open to the public following confirmation of Coronavirus guidelines by the Scottish Government yesterday. Traditional services & parades at outdoor war memorials are cancelled.

<https://www.gov.scot/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-remembrance-2020/>

The Royal Regiment of Scotland

will commemorate Remembrance Sunday with the GSM reading the names of the fallen. This will be posted on the Regiment's Social Media FB & Twitter pages.

Legion Scotland & Poppyscotland are encouraging the public to take to their doorsteps at 11am on Remembrance Sunday & Armistice Day to mark the two-minute silence. A small private service & wreath laying in the Scottish National War Memorial at Edinburgh Castle will be broadcast via news/social media. The 2020 Scottish Poppy Appeal continues. See their Virtual Field of Remembrance, QR codes & contactless chips on poppy boxes & Donate, Download & Display campaign.
