

Tuesday February 22nd 2022 at 7.30pm, UK time

(Zoom conference opens from 7.15 pm):

The Scottish Soldier at Gallipoli

By Ian Binnie

Chaired by Stephen Chambers, GA Historian

Following on from his very successful presentation on the Irish soldier at Gallipoli, Ian will focus on the Scottish battalions who fought so well in the campaign, including the 52nd lowland Division and will also summarise the tragic Quintinshill railway disaster. Ian is the Education Co-ordinator of the Gallipoli Association and a regular speaker on Zoom and at our conferences. He will include contributions from some of the GA's Scottish members. He is also half Scottish himself!

The talk will last one hour, with time for questions.

To reserve a place, please email education@gallipoli-association.org

This talk is FREE to members, but we do encourage guests and the general public to join the Association or make a small donation. This helps us continue these talks and support our other charitable aims.

Donate

